Deadline: October 1, 2018.

The Rhodes Scholarship

Contact: The Rhodes Scholarship, Elliot F. Gerson, American Secretary, 8229 Boone Boulevard, Suite 240, Vienna, VA 22182, (703) 821-5960, amsec@rhodesscholar.org, <http://www.rhodesscholar.org/>.

Eligibility:

- Be a U.S. citizen or must have been admitted to the U.S. as a lawful permanent resident and must have maintained, and be expected to maintain, such legal status.
 - If you have been granted deferred action under the government's Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program AND your status is currently active, then you are also eligible to apply if you meet all other criteria below.
 - DACA applicants, like all others, must apply for the U.S. Scholarship or the new Global Scholarship, but not to both. Apart from DACA applicants, an applicant who is eligible to apply in an existing Rhodes jurisdiction should apply in that jurisdiction, and not to the Global Scholarship. Where there are risks of legal uncertainty, the applicant must make a determination.
 - Note: The Rhodes Trust makes no representations and does not offer any support regarding (a) the DACA applicant's ability to travel to the U.K., and (b) the DACA applicant's ability to return to the U.S. or to travel to another country upon conclusion of the scholarship; DACA applicants must assume this responsibility themselves.
- Be 18 years of age or older, but not yet 24, on October 1st of the year of application.

- In 2018, applicants will be eligible who were born after September 30, 1994 and on or before October 1, 2000.
- Have achieved academic standing sufficiently advanced to assure completion of an undergraduate degree before June/July 2019 with a GPA of 3.7 out of 4.0 or higher.

Award: All educational costs, such as matriculation, tuition, laboratory and certain other fees, are paid on the Scholar's behalf by the Rhodes Trustees. In addition, each Scholar receives a maintenance allowance (the stipend) adequate to meet necessary expenses for term-time and vacations. The Rhodes Trustees cover the necessary costs of travel to and from Oxford, one time each way. They do not pay for passports or visas, which are required for overseas students studying at Oxford. Election to the scholarship is normally for two or three years, depending upon the degree program pursued by the Scholar.

Deadline: October 3, 2018 (11:59 p.m. Eastern Time).

Eligibility:

- Be a U.S. citizen or must have been admitted to the U.S. as a lawful permanent resident and must have maintained, and be expected to maintain, such legal status.
 - If you have been granted deferred action under the government's Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program AND your status is currently active, then you are also eligible to apply if you meet all other criteria below.
 - DACA applicants, like all others, must apply for the U.S. Scholarship or the new Global Scholarship, but not to both. Apart from DACA applicants, an applicant who is eligible to apply in an existing Rhodes jurisdiction should apply in that jurisdiction, and not to the Global Scholarship. Where there are risks of legal uncertainty, the applicant must make a determination.
 - Note: The Rhodes Trust makes no representations and does not offer any support regarding (a) the DACA applicant's ability to travel to the U.K., and (b) the DACA applicant's ability to return to the U.S. or to travel to another country upon conclusion of the scholarship; DACA applicants must assume this responsibility themselves.
- Be 18 years of age or older, but not yet 24, on October 1st of the year of application.
 - In 2018, applicants will be eligible who were born after September 30, 1994 and on or before October 1, 2000.
- Have achieved academic standing sufficiently advanced to assure completion of an undergraduate degree before June/July 2019 with a GPA of 3.7 out of 4.0 or higher.

Award: All educational costs, such as matriculation, tuition, laboratory and certain other fees, are paid on the Scholar's behalf by the Rhodes Trustees. In addition, each Scholar receives a maintenance allowance (the stipend) adequate to meet necessary expenses for term-time and vacations. The Rhodes Trustees cover the necessary costs of travel to and from Oxford, one time each way. They do not pay for passports or visas, which are required for overseas students studying at Oxford. Election to the scholarship is normally for two or three years, depending upon the degree program pursued by the Scholar.

Deadline: October 3, 2018 (11:59 p.m. Eastern Time).
